3. COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD

(a) The Board should comprise Directors with a mix of qualifications, experience and expertise which will assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities, as well as assisting the Company in achieving growth and delivering value to shareholders. ANNEXURE A – DEFINITION OF INDEPENDENCE

A Director should only be characterised and described as independent if he or she is free of any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect his or her capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issue before the Board and to act in the best interests of the entity and its security holders generally.

Examples of interests, positions, associations and relationships that might cause doubts about the independence of a Director include if the Director:

- (a) is, or has been in the previous three years, employed in an executive capacity by the Company or another group member, or been a Director after ceasing to hold any such employment;
- (b) is, or has within the last three been, a partner, Director or senior employee of a provider of material professional services to the Company or another group member;
- (c) is, or has been within the last three years, in a material business relationship (eg as a supplier or customer) with the Company or another group member, or an officer of, or otherwise associated with someone with such a relationship;
- (d) is a substantial security holder of the Company or an officer of, or otherwise associated with, a substantial security holder of the Company;
- (e) has a material contractual relationship with the Company or another group member other than as a Director;
- (f) has close family ties with any person who falls within any of the categories described above; or
- (g) has been a Director of the Company for such a period that his or her independence may have been compromised.

The materiality thresholds are assessed on a case-by-case basis, taking into account the relevant Director's specific circumstances, rather than referring to a general materiality threshold.
